Product Description

Changrun Packaging is a leading China Gift Shopping Handbag manufacturers, suppliers and exporter. Shopping bag advertising can use the limited area of the bag to spread the market information of enterprises or products and services to the world. When customers carry shopping bags printed with store advertisements through the streets, in fact, some exquisite handbags are no less than making an excellent advertising signboard, and the cost is relatively low.

Gift Shopping Handbag is designed for supermarkets, shopping malls and other places. Supermarkets and shopping malls have designed special handbags to facilitate consumers' shopping, transport their shopping goods home and connect their feelings with consumers. This kind of handbag is mostly made of plastic. Compared with other handbags, it has a solid structure and material, can accommodate more items, and is cheap. The visual factors on shopping handbags are mainly composed of specific publicity forms (logo, mascot, special graphics, special image, etc.) of shopping places, highlighting the image of supermarkets and shopping malls and conveying the information of shopping places.
